

Letter of recommendation.

Janus Rose has been a freelance industrial designer for the LEGO Extended Line Group from 23rd of April to 27th of June 2003.

Within a team of designers Janus formed concepts and strategies for the line of LEGO merchandise regarding 150 new items.

Janus has been in charge of replacing a large variety of LEGO bags with a single collection of LEGO brand driven bags.

Janus formed a solid design strategy, and implemented this strategy into an exiting new collection of bags.

Janus is a team player, enthusiastic and shows a great commitment to the task, alongside a high creative drive, LEGO Extended Line Group can give Janus the best recommendations.
