Letter of recommendation

Janus Djurhuus Rose has been employed at Orango ApS as Chief Design Officer since the 1st of March 2014.

Janus has showed a great graphical skill alongside great technical competencies. At his period of employment he really elevated Orango's digital design side through projects such as SuRI, Healthcare Agency, KarmaDharma, Bulkamid, PCO-foreningen and many others.

Janus is also a team player that lift the spirit in the whole company with his good mood.

We can only give Janus our best recommendations.

The reason for his too short stay at Orango has under no circumstances root in his abilities nor his personality. It is only due to outside unfortunate circumstances.

Best Regards

Jan Stilling Hansen
CEO
